Second Lesson in Finance. A few issues back we showed that al the money voted by the Legislative Council for the year 1870 in the Estimates was $513,735; of that amount $156,637 was for Interest and Sinking Fund on the Public Debt,-and that the balance $360,098, was the true sum to which taxpayers could object, it being the balance out of which the salaries of the Officials and the expenditure for services are paid. We now propose to deal with this Balance; but shall confine our observations at present to that part of the Balance of the $360,098, that inludes the salaries of those officials who are provided for by Special Acts, -and who are not dependent on annual votes for their salaries. The first act was enacted by Governor Donglas, when sole Legislator of British Columbia, and is dated Sept. 24th, 1863. The salaries enumerated in the Schedule to this act are as follows : Governor £3,000: Judge of Supreme Court of British Columbia, £1,200; Colonial Secretary £800; Attorney General with practice 2500; Treasurer £750; Commissioner of Lands and Surveyor General 2800; Collector of Customs £650; Chief Inspector of Police £500; Registrar General of British Columbia £500, making a total of £8,700, equal to $42,195. Under the Crown Officers Salary extension Ordinance of 1865, another £1,000 sterling or $4,850 was added to the salary of the Governor of British Columbia. Under the Chief Justice's Salary Act, 1864, there were £1,200 sterling, or $5,820 voted permanently as the salary of the Chief Jus-fice of Vancouver Island. These three Acts make the total amount of the salaries of the Governor and permanent Officials $52,865. From this sum, owing to the duties of Treasarer being discharged by the Colonial Secretary, we have to deduct £750, or $3,637, from the total, which leaves $49,228. Owing to the removal of Chief Justice Needham and the placing of Mr. Crease on the bench as Puisne Judge, another reduct-ion of £200, or $970, has been made. If that sum be deducted from the $49,228, we have $48,258 as the total amount the salaries of the Governor, two Judges Colonial Secretary, Surveyor General, Collector of Customs, Chief Inspector of Police, and Registrar General of British Columbia. Now the queston naturally arises are the people content with the respective sums paid these gentlemen? Those who think as we do, are not content to pay so large a sum as $48,258 for these Officials without protesting against it. The grounds of protest are, first: the Governor's salary. He draws £4,000, or $19,400 as salary. Now we are of that number who think that $5,000 salary, and $5,000 for hospitalities, is an ample sum to keep up the diginity of a Governor in a British Colony like ours. Assuming that to be correct, the saving by voting only $10,-000 instead of paying $19,4.0 would be $9,400 on the Governor's salary, alone. If £600 or $2,910, which is a sufficient salary, be given to the Colonial Secretary instead of $3,880, as at present, there would be a saving of $970 If the Attorney General be cut down from £500, or £2,425, to £300, or $1,455, another saving of $970 would be effected, and he would be well paid for all he does. The salary of Surveyorall he does. The salary of Surveyor-General ought also to be reduced from $3,880 a year to $2,910—making another saving of $970. The Collector of Customs for some unknown reason is put down at £650. £600 would pay him and place him on an equality with the Colonial Secretary and Surveyor—General. cretary and Surveyor-General; so his salary may fairly be reduced £50, or $242. The duties of Registrar General of British Columbia are merely nomial—this office being a mere sinecure—can be reduced from £500, or $2,425, to $500 per year,—and a saving of $1,925 be made. The office of Chief Inspector of Police is useless so another $2,425 can be struck off. It may be said that this officer may be used as a magistrate, but we will deal with that aspect of the case another time. Now no one in his senses will say that there is anything very extreme in asking for these reductions and disallowances, or that the public service would suffer by such retrenchment. The saving, however, that would be effected in the annual sum paid in salaries as above would be $16,902 per annum. Solet taxpayers recollect this that they are paying $16,-902 more money annually than they ought to. Let them recollect this is being done by Governor Musgrave, with the aid and advice of those two very popular Executive Councillors, Messrs. Helmcken and Carrall, our Delegates to SANITABY .- A great many complaints are daily being made about the sanitary condition of the city. The stagnant pools of water on the different streets within the city limits throw out an oudour which is anything but pleasant or healthy to people living in the vicinity, or to parties who may have occasion to pass close to where they are. We believe Mr. Strong has a contract to cleanse these. gutters. Why are they not attended to?

Most Ribiculous .- The Colonist not b ing taken as very good authority in this city, afer its abuse ane mis-representation of the recent public meeting at the Theatre, finds it convenient to call to its aid a correspondent, real or assumed, who offers to bet $250 that Cagada will guarantee that the railway "from the termination of the present line in Consda to the Pacific const will be built in ten years. In all newspaper history, did any one ever n tice such a boyish bet? If there were any such news, the Colonist would most likely have given it to the public with wide-spreading capitals over a treble-headed art cle. But unfortunately the great Canadian railway can only be brought into notice by a paltry of $250, made by an annymous writer. great in themselves. Why, if there were any such news, we should only be too glad to an. nounce it. But to resort to such a contemp-tible affair as betting is too ridiculous a pro-ceeding in respectable journalism. Besides, what is the meaning of "the termina ion of the presant line in Canada?" Does it mean Ottawa, Arnprior, Geodrich, or Sarnia? How muddled some newspapers get! But every one believes the Colonist without the bet! of course they do. We believe it just to oblige it; for it must be humiliating to resort to betting to back up its position. INSTALLATION .- At an adjourned meeting Victoria Lodge No. 1, I. O. O. F., held last evening, D. D. G. M., J. S. Drummond. assisted by Jno. Weiler, A. H. Guild, Chas. Gowen, J. Davies, L. After the installation the breathern adjourned to the Alhambra Hall, where they enjoyed themselves dancing until an early hour this morning.

DEATH .- Mr. William Wright, who came down here from the mainland about two months ago to have a surgical operation perormed on him, died yesterday morning at hrs. Mason's, Fort street. The operation of lithotomy was performed a few days ago, and it was supposed that he was not strong enough to stand it. The deceased has a farm iu British Columbia, and and several grown up children. FIREMEN's PICNIC .- The bustle and excitement of the Caledonian Gathering being over, we think it is right that we should cursorily allude to the next day's sport on the tapis, vis., the Firemen's Picnic on Saturday, the 16th of July at the beautiful grounds known as Medina's grove.
